BONNIE IS AN EXTREMELY NICE & CARING WOMAN, WHO CLEARLY HAS PASSION FOR THE SUBJECT. HOWEVER, I:

- Her lectures were very hard to follow
  → They were not organized or presented effectively
- She only seemed to know what was written on the slides (COULDN'T ANSWER QUESTIONS EFFECTIVELY)
- Her Grading System was not presented clearly
  → Did not receive # Grades, only letters
  → No graded Assignments were returned
- Homeworks were not always relevant to lecture material

The study guide for the last exam was very helpful, and would be helpful to have one for every exam.

The hands on in class activities helped me understand the information and relate it to everyday situations

15. The structure of the class was not good and just seemed to give us a lot of information randomly.

16. The exams were all multiple choice but the answers were either opinion based or there seemed to be more than 1 right answer.

Never posted any slides or reviews so it was tough to know what the exams were on

She is a very nice woman but must work on teaching more effectively

I enjoyed this class and thought the material was presented well, I just think powerpoints and class information should be posted on blackboard. I also like how our grade is set up with the different components of the class.

Most of the activities we did in class weren't very helpful for remembering concepts, and it would've helped a lot if the slides had been posted.

The instructor was very passionate and clear. There were mainly just issues with online elements - but that was not in the instructors control. After getting study guides, it was a lot more clear what to focus on. The most important aspect for me was being clear on test content. My favorite thing to discuss was personality traits and it is very interesting.
